The New Year 2023: A Time for Renewal

Hope is intangible but real, and it has to do with faith, and G!d, and a New Year. For what is a new year?

- A new year is another opportunity granted by G!d to renew one's feeling of hope.
- A new year is a chance to begin again and hope to strengthen one's character
- A new year is a moment in time to re-track, to change, for the better.
- A new year is a time to look to the future with eager anticipation, and to assess and determine the steps we need to take to improve ourselves and our lives.

A football coach known for his optimism entered the locker room and gave the players a pre-game pep talk. "All right, boys," he offered cheerily, "here we are, unbeaten, untied, and unscored upon—and ready for the first game of the season."

Now we are renewed, refreshed and ready for 2023. It is a whole new ballgame. We are veterans in living, and now we start a new season. We have been given life, and where there is life, there is hope.<sup>1</sup> With the right attitude, with a feeling of love in our hearts, and with hope in our souls, we can have a great year.

Let us approach life with vigor and enthusiasm because we are given the opportunity to press the restart button. Life holds much promise, and so we can take this time and begin to live with anticipation, with eagerness, with hope, and, not least, with joy.

Alevai! So may it be! May 2023 be a year of purpose, joy, love, hope, and community!

Rabbi J.B. Sacks

Tevet and the Calendar of 2023

Happy New Year, everyone! Feels like we said that not too long ago!

We have just finished Chanukah, and are now in the Hebrew month of Tevet. While Tevet does include the final 2 days of Chanukah, Chanukah is really known more as a Kislev holiday, since that is when the holiday begins. What is Tevet known for? If anything, it's known for the 10th of Tevet (January 3rd this year), a minor fast day in remembrance of the siege of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar's neo-Babylonian forces.

Despite the joyous festival of lights during Chanukah, and singing songs with lyrics such as "Don't let the light go out," that happiness we get from Chanukah doesn't appear to last too long from a calendar perspective. How does our calendar become so sad so quickly following Chanukah?

Many people don't observe the fast, but regardless, we could always use a little inspiration during difficult times. I like to think that the month of Tevet gets the final 2 days of Chanukah so the light from Chanukah can continue to inspire us even on a sad day like the 10th of Tevet.

Something the Maccabees taught me is that while miracles can indeed happen, and G!d can certainly help us in times of need, sometimes we need to be our own sources of inspiration. The Maccabees were the ones who initially fought back against the Greeks, not G!d. And G!d became so inspired by their determination and spirit that G!d chose to aid them in the fight.

While Tevet doesn't seem to have anything obvious in it worth celebrating from a Jewish perspective, that doesn't mean that we shouldn't find reasons to celebrate. We need to be determined to find them for ourselves! Perhaps it's a birthday, or maybe something smaller, like a kindness shown to us by our friends. Sometimes the secular calendar can inspire us just as the Jewish one does. January brings Martin Luther King Jr. Day, a holiday whose message of freedom is a great parallel to the Exodus from Egypt that we read about in the first block of the book of Shemot (which we begin in January this year).

(Martin Luther King Jr. marching in Montgomery with Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath and Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel)

And of course, we can finally wish our non-Jewish friends a shana tova, something that always makes me chuckle.

May the 2023 calendar year be one of joy and continued light for us all!

Maayan

Message From

Brenda Rich

Greetings: Yes, like the past years, I am here in Cathedral City, in my motor home and sending this message to you from here. However, tonight as I am typing my article, I have just finished lighting candles for the 7th night of Hanukkah. And for the secular, non-Jewish world it is Xmas eve. And how wonderful I can say that because we all believe in peace and are working together to make that become a reality in 2023

May we all continue to be healthy and work to make all our dreams come true. 2023 is a new year for all of us. So all that has been unpleasant in the past, is just that – passed. Coming in 2023 for our Am HaYam family our new classes, new services, new programs and events.

A major new event coming on May 7 is being brought to all by our life-long learning chair, Fran Lande. The Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute is showing a most powerful exhibition – “Auschwitz. Not Long Ago. Not Far Away.” All the information can be found elsewhere in the Migdalor. But we need your commitment so tickets can be purchased. This will be a very popular showing and tickets will be going fast. If possible, carpools will be arranged and will leave from CAH. This is not a fund raiser. The group price, for 25 tickets, that is being charged by Ronald Reagan is what we are paying so please ask all your friends and family if they would like to join us.

Also coming up very soon is Purim. And along with Purim, is our Mishloach Manot Mitzvot fund raiser. The article and form are elsewhere in the Migdalor. If you are able to participate, please do so in any level you are comfortable with.

I hope you had a wonderful and meaningful Hanukkah. Here is to 2023 during which I hope you will be at services either live or live-streamed or on Zoom when we have them. Hope you will be at our sessions with the Rabbi, Student Rabbi, Fran and Andrea. Love always.

Shalom,
Brenda

Dear All,

Mark Rich found a very important program/exhibit that will be held at the Reagan Library beginning March 24, 2023, called Auschwitz: Not long ago, Not far away. It is an extraordinary collection of more than 700 original artifacts of immense and human value. The exhibition is recommended for ages 12+. Although the history of Auschwitz is challenging, the curators have developed this exhibition not only with profound respect for the victims, but also for visitors. Care has been taken to ensure that there are no gratuitous depictions of violence. Every effort has been made to consider the emotional impact this story can have on visitors, so that they can safely explore this history, seek to understand it better, and to make meaning for themselves.

The cost of tickets (Group is 25 or more) is the following:

Adults: 34.95
Senior (62 or older): 31.95

We would like to offer a CAH group experience of this exhibit. Rabbi Sacks will join us. Because it is expected to have many days that sell out, we are planning ahead to May, 2023. We have decided on the following date and we want to know your interest and availability.

- Sunday, May 7., 2023

Please let Fran Lande, Life-Long Learning Chair at Fblande@gmail.com or Brenda Rich, President at Brenda.bashful16@gmail.com know of your interest and availability ASAP (Friday, January 13, 2022) at latest. You can also contact us if you have any questions.

Thank you for your prompt response.

PURIM'S COMING!--LET'S THINK ABOUT GIVING MISHLOACH MANOT!

There is a Purim song called "You Can Change the World" that states in part,
"Oh Esther, you can change the world' you can make the world complete.
Take the pride you feel inside and never accept defeat."

This truly defines the meaning and importance of Purim, especially this year. Purim will be celebrated on the evening of Monday, March 6 and continues through Tuesday, March 7.

This year CAH is once again participating in the custom of mishloach manot. Also known as mishloach manos or shortened to sh'lach manos, these are goodies (all kosher) given out at Purim. These bags or baskets are given to relatives, friends, teachers, neighbors, business associates, and any other acquaintances you may have.

The mitzvah of giving mishloach manot derives from the Book of Esther. It is meant to ensure that everyone has enough food for the Purim feast and to increase love and friendship among Jews as a counter to Haman's assertion that we are characterized by strife and disunity.

Mishloach manot is made up of sweets, drinks, and other food items and can vary from synagogue to synagogue, and from year to year. It is always fun to open them and discover what has been given. The one item you can count on, of course, is hamentashen.

This is not only fun, but the mishloach manot project brings in money for the congregation, so we are all doing two mitzvot at the same time! Last year was a big success, helping Am HaYam in many ways. You can purchase as many mishloach manot bags as you wish, and there will be a discount for different quantities purchased.

Remember as well that everyone honored will receive one mishloach gift bag. So, for example, If you buy a bag for Rabbi Sacks, he receives one bag and your name gets included on his card, along with the names of others who may have included Rabbi as well.

Please see the order form in this Migdalor. We hope for a robust participation.

MILA 18

The second book we will be reading is Mila 18 by Leon Uris. The discussion will take place on Wednesday, January 11, 2023 at 7 p.m. on Zoom. Leon Uris's novel is set in the midst of the ghetto uprising that defied Nazi tyranny, as the Jews of Warsaw boldly met Wehrmacht tanks with homemade weapons and bare fists. Here is the compelling story of one of the most heroic struggles of modern times. As we mark the 80th anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising, the discussion is an important part of our learning and commemoration as a CAH community.

CAH Protocols for Moving Back into Our Building

(Revised, February 2022)

Now that the Omicron surge has waned, we look forward to again having services live in our own CAH home. To do so, these are the protocols we will be following. We thank you in advance for helping make our synagogue space warm, welcoming, and safe for all.

1. Everyone must be fully vaccinated to come to services and events held in our CAH home. Proof of vaccination should be shown the first time entering.
2. Social distancing will be maintained. All rows can be utilized.
3. Wearing masks is optional (as all are fully vaccinated).
4. For those who cannot attend services, we will continue live-streaming our services.
5. Service will continue as we have been doing, with aliyot and honors from the front of the Sanctuary, and not from the bimah.

Best Practices/Etiquette Upon Moving Back

Not everyone is equally comfortable with touch at this time, whether it is a handshake, a hug, or a Shabbat shalom kiss. We can express our joy in seeing each other without these, but if it's something any of us want to do, please ASK the person you are about to greet in a physical way first. Please do not take anyone's "NO" as a rejection. Please support everyone in the comfort level in which they find themselves.

ORDERING MEMORIAL WALL PLAQUES AT CAH

Jewish tradition sees memory as a sacred act, allowing us to be inspired by the good in a loved one's life and live more fully in our own days. A yahrzeit plaque allows for a permanent remembrance of a loved one, ensuring that his or her name will be recalled in perpetuity in our congregation. It is very meaningful to see the memorial plaque of your loved one on the High Holy Days, especially at the Yom Kippur Yizkor (Remembrance) service, on the Shabbat close to the yahrzeit, and at other special moments (including Passover, Shavuot and Sukkot Yizkor services).

Names on the plaque are automatically recalled publicly at the Shabbat prior to the yahrzeit at both our Friday night and Saturday morning services just before Mourner's Kaddish.

Ordering a plaque is a wonderful way to pay tribute to that special person or persons of blessed memory.

The current cost of ordering a bronze plaque for the memorial wall is $360.00 per plaque. If you would like to order two plaques now, the cost will be $330.00 per name. For 3 or more plaques the cost is $300.00 per name.

Thank you for considering doing this for your loved ones. Their lives will be remembered and an inspiration to many.

Sincerely,

Brenda Rich
